Trading activity was slow on light demand. Strength of the dollar, dip in oil prices and backlog of the west coast ports seems to be some factors effecting the movement of current supplies. Dry conditions are still ongoing and planting is still a month away in most regions. Cicils Convention is going on this week and the turn out reported is about a 1000. Dark Red Kidneys, Small Red Beans, and Black Beans are in tight supply. The 2014 Bean Market News Summary is now available at the following website - <http://www.ams.usda.gov/mnreports/lmaba.pdf> ***
